2. The CIA Intelligence School graduated its first class today - sixteen students, half of whom will enter the military services for basic, OCS and other appropriate training prior to assignment to CIA offices. The others enter on duty directly with various offices. The graduation address was delivered by Mr. Allen Dulles.

3. Major General C. P. Cabell, Director of Intelligence United States Air Force, has accepted the invitation to speak on Friday, 5 October, to the Agency employees participating in the CIA Orientation Course.

4. Received from the Department of the Air Force the official acceptance of the agreement for basic, OCS, and active-duty training of not more than sixty-five selected CIA career employees per year. Similar official acceptances from the Navy and Marine Corps, now pending, will complete these arrangements with all the military services.
